Cottage on the Cliff. This quaint old "Cottage on the Cliff," as it is always termed, has probably been sketched, painted, or photographed more than any other spot in Paignton. One would scarcely imagine from the picture that it is close beside one of the finest modern sea fronts in England.

Dear Torquay
I thank so very much for your card
a new year wishes.
We are still well.
Are you staying
long at Bexhill?
Much love

Dear Mr. Tuck,
I am very sorry I cannot come Monday. Do you think you could manage to go to the 1/2-haer-Tuesday if you would meet me at the A.D.C. about 11-30.
Oh not trouble to bring anything if it should be wet. We will go Wednesday if quite convenient to you with love
Yours
J. S. E.
